

June 13, 2017

The Plymouth Downtown Development Authority is expected to present plans for a new Kellogg Park fountain to the city's Historic District Commission on Wednesday, August 2.

The meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. at Plymouth City Hall, and is open to the public.

These are the latest renderings of the fountain being presented to the HDC for its approval.

