

The Plymouth Downtown Development Authority Saxton RFP Sub-committee met on Tuesday, June 27, 2017 at Plymouth City Hall.

Among the information from the meeting:

The DDA Saxton RFP Sub-committee selected Harmonie Park Development to move forward with plans for the Saxton property.

The sub-committee's recommendation will be presented to the DDA Board for its approval at the regular July 13 meeting. If Harmonie Park is approved by the DDA Board, the project will move forward.

There will continue to be public input when the project goes in front of the city Planning Commission, Historic District Commission and City Commission.
