

The Plymouth Downtown Development Authority met in a regular session on Thursday, March 9 at Plymouth City Hall.

Among the information from the meeting:

- Staff Director Tony Bruscato said that DDA staff is working to check references of developers being considered for the Saxton's property.
- DDA Chairman Oliver Wolcott said that the Saxton's RFP subcommittee may want to reach out to a financial expert prior to the next subcommittee meeting.
- DDA Chairman Oliver Wolcott said that public discussion about any improvements to Kellogg Park wouldn't happen until fall of 2017.
- Staff Director Bruscato said that the DDA's new mobile friendly website is expected to launch in early April.
- The DDA Board was given a report from Carl Walker noting potential repairs needed for the Central Parking Deck. Further discussion is expected at April's DDA Board Meeting. DDA Board Director Jim Frisbie said that a representative from Carl Walker should be present at April's DDA Board Meeting to answer any questions.
- The DDA Board voted unanimously to pass a second quarter budget amendment.
- The DDA Board voted 6-1 against the adoption of the 2017-18 proposed budget. A revised proposal is expected to be presented at April's DDA Board Meeting.
- Staff Director Bruscato presented a list of spring projects staff is planning for 2017.